Introduction

Every person is faced with the question of the meaning of life in one form or another manifests itself in varying degrees of tension and problem ativeness. Personal life filling with content is a property inherent in a person. He tends to have a purposeful goal in his life activity. Realizing that he is not eternal, that he will die, a person wants to fall in love with some kind of eternity and is looking for his place in society, striving to increase the value of his life.

Considering a person, his development as the goal of social progress the output allows you to compare the interests of the individual and the interests of the development of society on a humane, spiritual basis. This methodical reasoning determines the meaning of life in the footsteps of his life, the creative abilities of the individual are constantly developing and improving health. Therefore, A. M. Korshunov "creativity is sub" is an active interaction of an object with an object. In this process, the subject or "changing the surrounding world in a simplified way, guided by the requirements of objective laws."

creates a new, socially significant universe. Influencing the surrounding world, the subject- it also changes itself" [1. 383 - b], he writes.¹

In accordance with the Decree of the President of the Republic of Uzbekistan dated March 26, 2021 No. UP-6196 "on measures to raise the activities of internal affairs bodies in the field of public security and combating crime to a qualitatively new level", as well as in order to further enhance the role and responsibility of internal affairs bodies in ensuring the effective implementation of the established new mechanisms to ensure public security, a decision was made.² Given that the human being is a primary issue in a democratic society, the Constitution attaches special importance to the issue of human rights, freedoms and duties. Constitution

All citizens of the Republic of Uzbekistan have the same rights and gender, race, nationality, language, religion, social origin, regardless of origin, beliefs, personality and social status, special attention is paid to equality before the law. In this place

In international legal acts "on human rights, the embodiment of norms."³ The moral of military service in the Armed Forces of the Republic of Uzbekistan, based on the traditions, customs, moral norms of our people accumulated over decades, the participation of military personnel in the processes of organizing and passing military service, the moral education of employees is formed. The love of a serviceman for the Motherland, moral responsibility, honor, pride and other aspects of professional activity conditions, organization, legal basis of activity and determines the order and directions of daily activities are clearly and clearly visible in the process.⁴

Relevance of the topic:

Military morality is formed in the course of spiritual and moral transformations in military collectives, in the process of public relations, in statutory relations among themselves.

The servicemen of our Armed Forces enrich their morals with the spiritual heritage and values of the Uzbek people, such as friendship, friendliness, humanism, moral depth, courage, sincerity, honesty, truthfulness, honesty, integrity, purity, restraint, respect for parents and adults, diligence, respect for the past, faith and other moral qualities⁵. All over the world, individual structures, not the army and the Ministry of Defense, are engaged in ensuring discipline and public security inside the country. As you know, today we are doing a lot of work aimed at ensuring public order in the country based on the concept of "Safe City - Safe Country".

News topics:

As a result of the introduction of the systems "SafeCity", "Safe tourism", "safe apartment", 24-hour patrol, people have confidence in "justice and the rule of law". The President of our country gave instructions to further strengthen the material and technical base for ensuring public security, including the allocation of modern helicopters to the Main Department of Internal Affairs of the city of Tashkent. We will achieve everything else if we ensure peace and health, says the head of our state. To this end, systematic work has been carried out in our country aimed at strengthening peace and tranquility, ensuring public order. Over the past two years, more than 100 legislative acts have been adopted. Organization and strengthening of military culture in the military collective, soldiers' brotherhood in it. Meetings with scientists, creative figures and artists, outstanding personalities, veterans are of great importance in the aesthetic, spiritual, moral and patriotic education of military personnel. Establishing relations is the task not only of commanding officers, but also of all categories of military personnel. First of all, we must realize and feel from the bottom of our hearts that the military collective in which we serve is part of our people, our Homeland.

A soldier forms a team, and a team forms a soldier. Therefore, every serviceman should contribute to the formation of the team, be morally and ethically healthy, feel personally responsible for fulfilling the principles of military ethics and aesthetics, military and moral etiquette, and improving combat capability.⁶

Recently, in the Armed Forces of the Republic of Uzbekistan, the influence of the military collective on improving the quality indicators of combat capability of military units, units has been increasing. The current conditions, in which the threat of terrorism is increasing, the complex military-political situation in Central Asia persists, require defenders of the Fatherland to constantly work on themselves, systematically improve professional skills, vigilance and vigilance, organization, mutual assistance, soldier's friendship, military discipline and law.- it requires more self-discipline, readiness to deal a worthy blow to any aggression.⁷⁸ The leader in strengthening and forming cultural relations of military personnel, military collectives. a special place is occupied by the support of disciplinary relations between subordinates, the organization of their lifestyle, life on the basis of strict statutory requirements, a socially and psychologically healthy atmosphere in military collectives, the pride of servicemen for their team, respect for its combat traditions.⁹

Suggestions on the topic:

In conclusion:

Military-patriotic education of youth is a multi-level, systematic, purposeful and coordinated activity of state bodies, public associations and organizations aimed at forming a sense of devotion to the Motherland among young people, regardless of nationality, language and profession, educating them in individuals capable of fulfilling their civic duty and constitutional duties, protecting the interests of society and the state. The main purpose of military-patriotic education of young people is the formation of such important qualities among young people as activity in various spheres of society, especially in those types of public service that are related to the military sphere, loyalty to the Constitution and military duty in peacetime and wartime, high responsibility and responsibility for the fate of their country and people. Considering a person and his development as a goal of social progress allows us to compare the interests of the individual and the interests of the development of society on a humane, spiritual basis.
